

Spencer Leonard Collection – C Surnames

Cards were filmed in the order they were found in the drawer. Occasionally a card is out of alphabetical order. Also, some of the cards have letters that are unclear, that may not be found using Find. It is recommended that users browse in addition to searching using Find.

Searching the images

Word search by holding down the Ctrl or Command key and touching the letter F.

A search box will open for the search term. Type in the search term and click Enter.

Due to the nature of Optical Character Recognition (OCR) and the quality of some printed items, some instances of the search term may not be found. It is always good practice to look for multiple spellings and to use other search terms.

FRED L. CLEMMENS

NEWBERG — Funeral services were held Monday for Fred Leon Clemmens, 85, a contractor who built the library and high school in Newberg, and later in life started a furniture manufacturing firm.

Clemmens died Jan. 3 in a nursing home in Newberg, the town where he was born Dec. 1, 1878. His parents both had come to Oregon in covered wagons, and his father, William B., was a Civil War veteran and head of the Oregon GAR organization.

Clemmens retired in 1960, at age 81, closing a remarkable career. He organized the Clemmens & Hansen contracting firm before World War I and built Newberg High School, Newberg Carnegie Library, St. Paul High School and a number of commercial buildings and homes in the area.

In 1917 Clemmens worked in shipyards until the end of World War I, then helped organize the Columbia Furniture & Fixture Co., which he ran until 1929.

Then he started, with Hansen again his partner, a radio sales and repair shop. In 1935 he reorganized his construction firm. He spent the last 20 years before retirement as construction foreman for

Son of Wm.

Spaulding Pulp & Paper Co.
at Newberg.

He is survived by his widow,
Lena, whom he married April 14, 1905. They had planned to celebrate their 59th wedding anniversary at their home next spring.

Other survivors include a son, Leon, Puyallup, Wash.,
and two daughters, Mrs. Katherine Van Sooy, Portland, and Mrs. Elizabeth Millar, Pacific
City.

Services were held Monday
at Mannenbach's Funeral Home with burial in the GAR
section of Friends Cemetery.

Dear Mr. Leonard:

Thank you for your information
in your 31 December letter.

Since then I have been able to find additional information on Cuddeboough
but have been unable to locate any descendants.

Thought you might like to have the enclosed summary for your records.

CRADLEBAUGH, George William #2214 : B. Ohio, 1845, A-Nevada (CvKrVet); Cav; Frontier Duty; hon disch 1871, 1 Lt. Surveyor of public lands.
D-25 Nov 1875 (age 32) Portland, Oregon. Bur. Lone Fir Cemetery.

Lt. Cradlebaugh served in the Sixty-eighth Illinois Volunteers during the Civil War for 13 months before reporting in to West Point. The sign-in record at West Point indicates that he was appointed in 1862 but did not appear as he had joined the active army, and declined the appointment. Since the appointment was from Nevada; and his father was listed as a member of Congress at that time, and since John Cradlebaugh was a member of Congress from Nevada at that time, it is assumed that he was his father. In 1863, Cradlebaugh accepted an appointment to West Point, again from Nevada, where he reported June 16, 1863, listing his home as Carson City, Nevada, and his guardian as Caleb Lyon, Lyonsdale, Lewis County, Nevada. Why he should list J. ~~Thorn~~ Cradlebaugh as his father in 1862 and Caleb Lyon as his guardian in 1863 is now unknown. He probably joined the 68 Ill Vol before May 16, 1862.

Information received from Mr. Spencer Leonard, Adjutant, Disabled American Veterans, Dept of Oregon, Inc., 3353 SE 15th Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97202 discloses the following:

Exhibit 22 (Nevada War Claims) of Senate Report #1286 to accompany H.R. 2914, a part of Statement for Committee on Military Affairs in support of SB No. 3420 which in turn was part of Senate Executive Document No. 17, 51st Congress, 1st Session (Printed Dec 19, 1889) 1881; Hon. John Cradlebaugh, delegate to Congress, Territory of Nevada.

Records of the Adjutant General's Office, War Dept. Wash DC.

Brig Gen'l J.G. Cradlebaugh, Adjutant-General, State of Nevada (Nevada entered the Union October 31, 1864)

Lone Fir Cemetery was established as a cemetery in 1854. A very disastrous fire in 1890, burned up their office with all records of burials therein. The only evidence of burials used to reconstruct these records was taken from the headstones. No headstone was placed over the grave of George W. Cradlebaugh at the time of the burial or later, hence the cemetery now has no record.

Long Life Ends

Story Column 6

JOHN W. CULLEN
Indian fighter was 101.

First Vote for Lincoln

Later, Mr. Cullen returned to Yamhill county, enlisting in the First Oregon volunteer infantry during the civil war on the western Indian frontier. He cast his first vote for Lincoln, voting for the emancipator again in 1864.

Mr. Cullen married Miss Anna E. Hembree, July 14, 1859. She lived to the ripe age of 92, and died just seven years ago this month. Eleven children were born to the couple.

In the '70s, the frontiersman took part in the Nez Perce troubles. He was then in charge of a 1000-acre ranch in Union county. It was while he was living in eastern Oregon that he became a Methodist Episcopal minister. Although he had retired, he returned to the pulpit for one day at Glencullen in June of 1929 in celebration of his 70th wedding anniversary.

John Cullen Born in Cabin

Early-Day Fighter Indiana Native

(See story on page 1 also)

John W. Cullen, who died at his home in Glencullen Thursday, was the last man who could relate from first-hand experience what it means when little boys at play talk today about making Indians "bite the dust." He was the last known survivor of the Indian wars of old Oregon.

Captain Cullen, who was chipper and refused a nap on his 101st birthday last June, was born in a log cabin on Stillwell prairie La Porte county, Indiana, June 18, 1838.

Martin Van Buren was president of the United States and Abraham Lincoln was still a struggling lawyer in Illinois.

Journey Made in 1847

His father died two months before the future civil, Spanish-American and Indian war fighting. Four years later

er was b
the widow 1
Polk, and in April of 1847,
family started "out we:
reaching The Dalles in November. Mr. Polk died of pneumonia a few days later, and the family was allowed to live in a small house in Portland village.

John walked to Yamhill county when he was 13 and there his active career began. He herded cattle, rode as a jockey, waited on tables, operated a ferry at Lafayette, learned saddle and harness making and worked as a printer on the Olympia
Pioneer and Democrat.

He enlisted at the outbreak of the Yakima war returning to Portland in 1857, when he became a member of the firm
Anderson & Cullen, 111
Blaine
