DNA Half-day Seminar
with Emily Aulicino

Topics

- Genetic Genealogy: Beginner Basic – Are you new at DNA testing for genealogy, or do you need a refresher course? This presentation will help you understand the importance of DNA testing, the uses of the three types of DNA tests, and the basic terminology. Learn how to choose a testing company that fits your needs, what to do while you wait for your results, and then what to do with your results.

- Autosomal DNA Testing – Do you know all the cousins in your family who are interested in genealogy? Would you like to connect with more people who are researching your lines? This presentation will explain the advantages of autosomal testing, give you tips on contacting non-genealogist cousins or strangers for DNA testing, and show you how to use the autosomal data to find the common ancestor for your matches.

Emily Aulicino is a retired teacher and has been researching her family’s genealogy for over 40 years. Those who have attended her presentations praise her for providing information that is easy-to-understand for any novice. She is the Regional Coordinator and Speaker of the International Society of Genetic Genealogists (ISOGG) for the states of Oregon, Washington, and Idaho. She manages thirteen DNA projects through Family Tree DNA (FTDNA) including seven surname projects, three genealogical society projects (financially benefiting each society), one haplogroup project, and three geographical projects. She established and chairs the DNA Interest Group for the Genealogical Forum of Portland.

The Rev. Dr. David McDonald, CGSM, is immediate past president of the Board for Certification of Genealogists® and a former director of the National Genealogical Society. A past editor of the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society Newsletter, he has published articles in genealogical journals and magazines since the 1980s. With nearly 40 years’ research experience, and more than 30 years as a genealogical lecturer throughout the United States and England, Dave brings a wealth of experience to his presentations. His research interests include New England, the Midwest, Germanic Europe, the British Isles, and migration paths and patterns; his lecturing specialties include churches and their records, English research, Presidential genealogy, and techniques for beginning and intermediate genealogists.

Outside the genealogical realm, Dave is a pastor in the United Church of Christ holding advanced degrees from Eden Seminary in Saint Louis and a doctorate from Christian Seminary in Indianapolis. His wife, Dr. Jennet Shepherd, is an optometrist. They have three adult children and live near Madison, Wisconsin.

Transcontinental Migration: How American Families Became Bicoastal

Using a case study of a family's movements as it traversed the continent from New England to the Pacific coast, beginning in the Revolutionary era and concluding with the turn of the last century, we'll examine the types of records available to researchers from this period. Consideration of travel routes and methods and methods for reconnecting with families who “fell off” the trail along the way—and those who may have turned back as well—will be made.

Reach for the Power Tools: Record Transcription & Analysis

Genealogical researchers seeking to become more adept at extracting available clues and information from the records they encounter are well-served by the transcription of materials researched along the way. Practice in transcription of documents, including handwriting techniques and forms and analyzing the clues contained therein, and suggestions for developing effective research practices and plans.

The Other Side of the Courthouse: Criminal & Civil Court Records

Family legend, lore, and unspoken secrets affect how we approach research efforts. Conducting thorough research sometimes goes beyond what we “know” is true, based on the family stories. We'll examine a farmhand's death in a hayfield for matters of property and murder and a family feud, a flock of sheep, and a meddlesome brother-in-law as we examine records from the other side of the courthouse.

Lutherpalians & Presbygationalists: Where Did Grandma's Church Go?

Did Grandma play cards? Was alcohol banned in the household? Was the Sabbath celebrated on Sunday or Saturday? We'll consider cultural clues for determining a family's religious heritage, how their tradition may have changed through the years, and strategies for finding records of various churches and denominations.

President's Message

Are you planning to attend the Member Appreciation Picnic on August 3rd? It will be a great time to share food and laughter, and of course genealogy with friends we’ve made at the GFO. Connect with those you have not seen for a while, or meet some of the people you hear about but have never had the pleasure of meeting. And your whole family is welcome, so we’ll have a chance to meet the spouses and kids we hear about but rarely see.

The GFO will provide hamburgers, hot dogs, and all the fixings as well as lemonade, ice tea, and water.

You are asked to bring a salad, side dish, or dessert to share—and to RSVP. You can call the library at 503-963-1932 or email picnic@gfo.org.

What could be simpler? See you at the picnic!

–Laurel Smith

One of the greatest genealogy resources available today is the huge collection of digitized genealogy and family history publications from the archives of some of the most important family history libraries in the world. When I travel to various genealogy conferences and societies, I am often amazed at how many genealogists are unaware of these free resources. Not only are the books and other publications available free of charge, you don't even have to pay for gas to visit these libraries!

These digital books are available at:

- Google Books
- Archive.org
- Allen County Public Library
- Brigham Young University Harold B. Lee Library
- Brigham Young University Hawaii Joseph F. Smith Library
- LDS Church History Library
- Family History Library
- Houston Public Library – Clayton Library Center for Genealogical Research
- Mid-Continent Public Library – Midwest Genealogy Center

The menus and the search methods will obviously vary from one site to another. However, a few minutes spent exploring each site’s holdings could pay big dividends.

I will say that most newcomers search only for names. In fact, I'll admit that I do the same on my first search on a new web site and I suspect a lot of other experienced genealogists do the same. However, after exhausting the search for names, most experienced genealogists start looking for other search terms. I always look for locations. Many times, I have been successful at finding some tidbit about an ancestor by searching for the county or the town in which he or she lived, even after a search for the person's name produced no results at all.

One of my more successful searches came from searching for the name of the small town in which my great-great-grandparents lived. I knew he was a farmer so I searched for his name plus the name of the small town in which they lived. I was rewarded with a scanned digital booklet of only 42 pages, printed in 1842, that listed all the farmers in the county, along with a detailed description of the farm and even the assessed value of the property. It listed the total acreage of their property, the number of acres under cultivation, the number of acres of woodlands, the number of barns and outbuildings, how many head of cattle, sheep, and swine that they owned, and even the number of chickens. It also listed the crops they sold. I learned a lot more about my great-great-grandparents in that small booklet than I ever found in census records!

When searching old books and other printed information, you have to be creative. You should search not only for locations, but also for fraternal organizations, religious affiliations, veterans’ organizations, labor unions, and anything else you can think of.

Hamburg Passenger Lists Ancestry Index Expanded to Cover 1850-1914

The index to the Hamburg Passenger Lists on Ancestry.com at http://search.ancestry.com/search/db.aspx?dbid=1068 now covers 1850-1914, an expansion from the previous period of 1877-1914. Most of this collection is now indexed, including Hamburg’s peak migration period. The only remaining unindexed period follows WWI (1920-1934), and images from that time can be browsed.

The update adds over eight hundred thousand new records to the index, which now includes over 4.6 million names.

The notice box at the top of Ancestry’s search page still contains the old dates, but the “About” section lower down contains the new date range. More information is available on Joe Everett’s blog at http://joeeverett.blogspot.com/2013/06/hamburg-passenger-lists-now-indexed-for.html.
Perhaps you have discovered treasures that you had not expected to find at the GFO Library. This column is designed to allow all of us to share those treasures with others. Join in the sharing process. As you discover things you think others would enjoy knowing about, please contact Tom O’Brien at tom.obrien4@comcast.net. He’ll work with you to include your discovery in this column.

One of the rare collections available for your use at the GFO Library is the Spencer Leonard Manuscript Collection. It consists of a 4” x 6” card file and is located in the black file drawers to the right of the card index files behind the bulletin board. The names in the card file have been indexed and are listed on the GFO website under the Indexes tab. An example is shown below.

Spencer Leonard gathered the information in the collection from forty or more sources. Some information was even created about soldiers who merely visited Oregon for events such as G.A.R. conventions.

Spencer Leonard was born on Christmas Day, 1894, in Hollister, California. He enlisted in the U.S. Army on 26 October 1916 and served as a private during World War I, mustering out on 29 March 1919. He was a lifetime member of the GFO and in 1971, two years before his death, donated his collection to the GFO.

Mr. Leonard was a member of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and spent years recording the location of graves of Civil War veterans buried in Oregon. He was a life member of the VFW and participated in many other veterans’ organizations as well as the Oregon Historical Society.

The next time you visit the Forum, bring information regarding your ancestors who served in the Civil War and look to see if this collection holds additional information unknown to you. While a limited number of men from Oregon served in the Civil War, many who served elsewhere eventually came to Oregon at least for a time.

Our collection also contains numerous other military books covering the nation and most of the individual states.

– Tom O’Brien.
Genealogy Book Group
Saturday, September 14, 11:45 am - 12:45 pm

The book group will be discussing the book Only a Few Bones: A True Account of the Rolling Fork Tragedy and Its Aftermath, by John Phillip Coletta. Pick up a copy to read this summer and join us in September.

British Interest Group
Saturday, September 28, 1 pm - 3 pm

Starting this fall, the British Group is looking forward to presentations on these three topics:

- North Ireland – September 28, Lucie Brady
- Parish Records – January 25, Duane Funk
- A Scottish Topic – March 22, Doris Cruickshank

We will hear success stories and have brick wall discussions to share resources for those in a quandary.

Irish Interest Group
Saturday, September 21, 1 - 3 pm

GFO & Irish Interest Group member Stephen Morgan will discuss the topic “The Irish Famine, Causes and Consequences.”

Hope to see you there.

Family Tree Maker Group
Sunday, August 18, 1 - 3 pm

In August “Creating Family Tree Charts” will explore all the different chart options from basics to customization using the templates provided. We’ll also discover how to create our own template.

“Running Reports” is the topic for September. Use reports to guide your research, look for errors, plan for a research trip, or share with friends and family. We’ll explore all the ways to export the information you’ve spent so much time putting in.

Financial Report

We ended our fiscal year on June 30, 2013, with a balance of $31,745.59 in the Wells Fargo checking account, $8,856.80 in the Bank of America money market account, and a market value of $50,075.57 in our Vanguard accounts. The total income for the year was $77,587.14, and the expenses totaled $74,974.67 for a net of $2,612.47.

June’s activity included the payment of $1,278.58 for the county cutter book relabeling project, $670.00 for the new atlas bookcase on the wall of the brick chimney, and $399.99 for the new Fender speaker system. Income included $835.00 for the sold-out Half-day Photo Seminar.

The Endowment Fund value on 6/30/13 was $150,847.62, and the money market account was $2,333.44. The Board has voted to resume the deposit of life memberships into the EF Vanguard MM account which resulted in a transfer of $1,020.00 during June.

The report of the donations made during the year and the annual appeal total appear later in this edition. A heartfelt thank you goes out to each and every one of you from me and my fellow Board members for improving our organization in ways that provide more resources for your research.

As this is my last report to you as Treasurer, I would like to thank you for the trust that you have given me in handling the finances of the GFO for the past seven years. I’ve enjoyed it tremendously, but it’s time to hand the reins over to Richard Crockett, our new Treasurer. I know he’ll do a great job for the GFO.

Sincerely yours,
Jeanette Hopkins
Vice President

In checking with the membership, we’ve found that a number of our “members” do not get to the meetings in Portland because they live too far away to make it feasible for them. This Facebook connection will make it possible to participate in the learning experiences of Illinois and/or Genealogy. We hope that you will participate in this way...and hope that you will find it both fun and educational.

Just go to Facebook and search for “Illinois Interest Genealogy Research.” Click on “Like,” and you’ll be a member of the group. (If you later find that it just isn’t the thing for you, you can unsubscribe.)

Donations Needed for the Treasures Auction

As we take registrations for our upcoming Fall Seminar, we’d like to ask you to search your closet or desk for a gently used item that we can auction at the seminar.

Suggestions include genealogically related books, household decorations, carry bags, and computer items.

Leave the item(s) at the front desk in the library with a note that it’s a donation to the seminar treasures auction.

Tickets are sold for $1 each or 6 for $5, and they are placed in separate paper sacks for each prize so you win only something you want!

Thanks!
Donations Report 2012 – 2013

Annual Appeal donations totaled $15,952 for the 2012-2013 fiscal year!

Other members listed below added a generous donation to their membership dues payment which we appreciate very much. Thank you for thinking of us at renewal time in the amount of $3,211.52 for the General Fund and $680.00 for the Endowment Fund!

Classes are free of charge to GFO members. Nonmembers who wish to attend must pay the day use fee of $7, but they may research in the library all day in addition to attending the class or opt to receive a one day pass to use at a later time. Monthly programs are free to all.

Best of the Cloud

– Nanci Remington

Saturday, August 17, 2 pm – Free Class

What are the most useful services on the internet for storing and accessing your genealogy information? This basics class will look at Dropbox, online family tree programs, and blogs. Other online services will be discussed if there is interest (for example, Google maps or photo storage sites).

Fold3.com – So Much More Than Military Records

– Susan LeBlanc

Saturday, September 21, 2 pm – Free Monthly Program.

This website, which is available at the GFO, began with a focus on Military Records but has now widely expanded its collections. We will explore the website and learn how it works. Learn about some of Fold3’s current digitization projects and how they will impact your research.

Introduction to Genealogy

– Keith Pyeat

Saturday, September 28, 10 am – Free Class

Are you unsure where to begin the process, or do you just want to get started again? Do you need some guidance about what to do next? We can help you jumpstart your genealogy! An optional follow-up tour of the GFO Library is offered to attendees.

This class is free. For information, call the GFO at 503-963-1932 or email info@gfo.org.

Volunteer Opportunities

If you can help with any of these openings, please contact Cathy Lauer, Volunteer Coordinator, at volunteer@gfo.org or leave a message for her at 503-963-1932.

Manuscript Scanning

The Manuscript committee is looking for someone who would like to learn how to use the new scanner. This is a job you can do on your own schedule as soon as you are trained. Papers are being organized and sorted now, so the project is ready to go into the next phase. If interested, contact Nanci at manuscripts@gfo.org or call the reception desk (503) 963-1932.

Mail Room

A backup person is needed in the mail room to help Jim with preparing the newsletter for mailing. This would require only 2-3 hours per month whenever the publication is ready to go. Contact Jim for specifics.

Research Assistants

Research Assistants are needed to fill some of the vacant Tuesday afternoon spots. Hours are 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Some of the duties of an RA are welcoming patrons into the library, answering the phone, helping patrons with their research, and shelving books. For a complete description of the duties, go to our website, www.gfo.org, and click on Volunteer. We need to have at least two volunteers on duty for each shift to keep the library open. Please consider volunteering one day per week, one day every two weeks, or one day per month.
