Topics

Pension Research: You Stopped Too Soon

Military pension records are a rich source of family information. This lecture covers three main types of records and where to find them: pension applications, pension office ledgers and cards, and final or last payments.

Treasury Records: Follow the Money

Treasury records document the expenditure of funds by the federal government and its agents. They cover a diverse spectrum of activities on the part of the government and are virtually untapped by genealogists.

Basic Military Research

An overview of how to research a soldier will be presented, from enlistment to discharge, from medical care to burial. Included are service records, unit records, claims, and pensions.

Finding Aids in the National Archives

General organization of archival materials will be described, and finding aids will be discussed, both those published and those available on site at the National Archives. The presentation will include how to develop a research strategy for locating the records.

Findmypast Now Available at the GFO!

Findmypast launched their US version this summer after 40 years in the UK. The GFO has purchased a one year subscription to the World Edition which includes:

- The full US and UK census, every name and every page
- A large number of unique UK and Irish records
- Exclusive access to all outgoing (departing) passengers lists from the UK, 1890-1960
- Expanding US Collections – Military records, newspapers and more coming within 12 months
- All of the many collections that will be available on the site in the next 12 months

The subscription will be available on one computer in the library and will allow members to use and evaluate this new resource. To explore their site, go to <http://www.findmypast.com>. Call 503-963-1932 ahead of time or let the receptionist know when you arrive to reserve time on this computer.

Use the www.gfo.org site to search for your Amazon items—we earn a 4% referral fee for each item purchased.

Done with Those Genealogy Books?

Have you extracted what you needed from books you bought? Donate them to the GFO! Donations are added to the collection or sold to raise much needed funds.

Changes at the Library

Sandi Whiteman, GFO Library Director for many years, has had to take a medical leave of absence. She has volunteered an enormous amount of time over many years to keep our collection and donations current, and the GFO wants to express its appreciation for all the work she has done to maintain and improve the GFO library.

While Sandi is out, we need help filling in with library processing jobs. Check the volunteer opportunities listed on page 7.

Thank you, Sandi, and we look forward to seeing you back here soon.

President's Message

There are many wonderful things that will never be done if you don't do them. – Charles D. Gill

We have a chance to do wonderful things at the GFO. In every issue The Insider publishes various needs and offers suggestions of ways you might be of service to our organization or our library. This month is no exception. Our Library Director, Sandi Whiteman, has taken a leave of absence. Sandi has done so much for our library that it will take many of us to fill in during her absence.

Please look inside yourself and ask if there isn't some way you could give some time to the GFO. Please ask yourself:

- Do I have a few hours a week or a few hours a month I could give to the GFO?
- What do I love to do, really love to do?

If you can answer yes to the first question, then please contact Cathy Lauer at catlauer@comcast.net or leave a message for her at 503-963-1932 and give her the answer to the second question. We do have a job for you!

Everyone can be great, because everyone can serve. – Martin Luther King, Jr.

We have so many volunteers who give of themselves routinely. Recently we had a few people who have gone out of their way to do even more. Thank you for answering the call for help.

- Gerry and Connie Lenzen, Tom O'Brien, Cathy Lauer, and Harriet Anani for helping with the donated chair project.
- Gerry and Connie Lenzen, Jeanette Hopkins, and Becky Clark for their hard work in the library workroom.
- Becky Clark for her dedication and expertise with the library workroom computer, learning how to do what needs to be done, creating how-to sheets and training, creating labels, and organizing processes.
- Steve Turner for jumping in with both feet to help us classify additions to our library collection.
- Sarah Holmes for coming in to learn about catalog entry and offering to help train others.
- Janis Robertson for helping process donations. (We really need one more person to help with this.)

Here's your chance to be great and to make a difference: contact Cathy Lauer now. Please don't put it off. We need your help today!

– Laurel Smith

FamilySearch to Digitize Italian Records

The Italian State Archives has granted FamilySearch access to its birth, marriage, and death records located in state archives throughout Italy. FamilySearch will provide digital copies in exchange. More than 23 million images and four million searchable names are now available on the FamilySearch site. For more information, see the article at <http://www.lds.org/church/news/familysearch-unites-with-italian-archive-organization-to-digitize-civil-registration-records>.

How to Solve Impossible Problems: Daniel Russell's Awesome Google search Techniques

An article by John Tedesco, a reporter for the San Antonio Express-News, describes powerful and efficient search techniques: <http://www.johntedesco.net/blog/2012/06/21/how-to-solve-impossible-problems-daniel-russells-awesome-google-search-techniques/>.

Online Courses: Power Searching with Google

The following article is from Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter and is copyright by Richard W. Eastman. It is re-published here with the permission of the author. Information about the newsletter is available at <http://www.eogn.com>.

Want to become an Google Expert? There is one organization that will show you how: Google.

Google used to conduct occasional live “webinars” that taught the finer points of using the search engine. In the past, you had to be seated at your computer at a designated time to participate in the live seminars. The company has now “canned” those lessons and made them available at any time of the day or night. There are six 50-minute classes, free for anybody to try.

The lessons include:

- Class 1 - Introduction
- Class 2 - Interpreting results
- Class 3 - Advanced techniques
- Class 4 - Find facts faster
- Class 5 - Checking your facts
- Class 6 - Putting it all together
- Power Searching with Search Experts Video
- Hang Out with Search Experts Video

The lessons are available as a video, in text, or as a slide show (in Google Docs, of course).

I'd suggest you take a look at the lessons. You'll be pleased at how much easier it is to find what you're looking for once you learn a few tricks.

“Power Searching with Google” is available at <http://www.powersearchingwithgoogle.com/course>.

Genetic Genealogy

CeCe Moore has written an introductory four-part series about DNA testing for genealogy for anyone who is new to DNA. The series of articles on Geni.com is designed to answer the most commonly asked questions. Part #1 can be found at <http://www.geni.com/blog/dna-testing-for-genealogy-getting-started-part-one-375984.html>.

Donations Needed for the Treasures Raffle

As we take registrations for our upcoming Fall Seminar, we ask you to search your closet or desk for a gently used item that we can raffle at the seminar.

Suggestions include genealogically related books, household decorations, carry bags, and computer items.

Leave the item(s) at the front desk in the library with a note that it's a donation to the seminar treasures raffle.

Tickets are sold for $1 each or 6 for $5, and they are placed in separate paper sacks for each prize so you win only something you want!

Thanks!

Help Support the GFO

Give the GFO phone number (503-963-1932) when making purchases at Office Depot, and GFO will earn a 5% commission.

Shop online for merchandise and subscriptions that give GFO a commission. Go to the GFO website, where you will see “Support Us” on the right side.

Click on Family Tree DNA to order a test kit for which you will receive a discount.

Classes & Programs

Classes are free of charge to GFO members. Nonmembers who wish to attend must pay the day use fee of $7, but they may research in the library all day in addition to attending the class or opt to receive a one day pass to use at a later time.

Using Find a Grave – Laurel Smith

Thursday, October 4, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, October 4, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Did you know you can use Find a Grave to create a type of family tree? That you can obtain photos of an ancestor's headstone from across the country? That Find a Grave can lead to discoveries about your family history? Learn all about this fabulous resource from Laurel Smith. If you know where some of your family members are buried and would like to enter the information on Find a Grave, bring the information about them with you to get started.

Using Google Maps and Google Earth – Nanci Reminton

Sunday, October 7, 2 pm

Wednesday, October 10, 10 am

This class will explore a few of the practical and fun ways to use these mapping programs to enhance your genealogy. On Google Maps we will walk through how to create personalized maps that can be used to plan a road trip or to visualize a migration route that your ancestors took. We will take a quick look at Google Earth which also has mapping possibilities as well as some great special effects. If you have a laptop, bring it and play along.

Hansel & Gretel Genealogy – Laurel Smith

Thursday, October 11, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, October 11, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Many of our ancestors left a fine trail of breadcrumbs for us to follow. Follow a case study to see one way to uncover that trail and follow it back in time. Laurel Smith will demonstrate how she began with one clue and discovered the trail that led back to the 1600s.

From Scanning to Publishing – Scott G. Edwards

Saturday, October 13, 2 pm, Free Monthly Program

Stop your ancestors from decaying, preserve them forever, and share them with everyone! Scott will let us in on the secret of scanning. He will introduce Vuescan scanner software and Photoshop Lightroom, a digital photo management system. Finally, he will teach us how to create our own books using Blurb. Bring your questions.

Scott Edwards is a photographer with over 40 years of experience as a professional photographer, photo restoration artist, digital archivist, and instructor. He has lived and traveled the world with a family history researcher for 37 years, photographing more headstones and documents than one man should ever have to see!

Cloud Computing – Nanci Reminton

Sunday, October 14, 2 pm

Wednesday, October 17, 10 am

For the purpose of this class, cloud computing refers to using the internet to create and store digital information. We will look at ways you already use the cloud and introduce some common programs that work in the cloud, including Dropbox, Google Drive, and Windows Sky Drive. We will also talk about the advantages and disadvantages of using the cloud. If you have a laptop, bring it and play along.

Family Tree Maker 102 – Laurel Smith

Thursday, October 25, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, October 25, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Have you been using Family Tree Maker for a while and feel like you are only scratching the surface of its features? Are you trying to use it but having difficulties? This class will explore some of the tools on Family Tree Maker you may not be using. It will also attempt to address any difficulties you may be experiencing.

Internet Questions – Nanci Reminton

Sunday, October 28, 2:00 pm

Wednesday, October 31, 10:00 am

Bring your questions about using the internet. Would you like to know more about online family trees or effective searches on Google and genealogy websites? Where are all those free books you keep hearing about? Are there ways to avoid some of those pesky ads? What do I do with all those bookmarks? What are a wiki and a blog? We will go where your questions lead us. If you have a laptop, bring it and play along.

Volunteer Opportunities

If you can help with any of these openings, please contact Cathy Lauer, Volunteer Coordinator, at catlauer@comcast.net or leave a message for her at 503-963-1932.

Adopt a Vertical File

Do the vertical files interest you? A committee is being formed to evaluate and inventory the contents of the geographical and surname vertical files in preparation for processing the backlog of materials to be considered for inclusion. They are looking for more members.

Mail Processing

Jim Morrow is looking for a mail person to help with the processing and mailing of The Forum Insider, and the GFO Bulletin. Duties include folding and taping the Insider and delivering it to Metropolitan Presort. The process for the Bulletin is printing and attaching the address labels, bundling into groups by zip code, and preparing it for delivery to the post office.

Research Assistants

There is a need for more volunteers to work as Research Assistants / Receptionists. Some of our long-time RAs have asked to be relieved of their duties due to health issues or because of other commitments. This is a good way for you to increase your own research skills by helping others. We especially need volunteers for Mondays 1:00 - 5:00 pm and Tuesdays 1:00 - 5:00 pm, but if those hours don't work, we can fit you in anytime that works with your schedule.

For more information about the duties, go to our website, www.gfo.org, and click on Volunteers. It is because of our dedicated volunteers that we are able to keep the library open seven days a week.

Thanks for any help you can give!

Periodical Subscription Coordinator

This job includes making sure newsletter exchanges are current, processing exchange requests, and managing paid periodical subscriptions. It is estimated to take a few hours once or twice per month.

Fall Seminar Book Sale

Book sellers are needed for the Fall Seminar to set up the night before, tend the booth and collect money throughout the seminar, tear down, and make sure unsold books are returned to the library.

Book Repair

Roger Ostrom will be teaching those interested how to help with book repair. This will include removing glue so books can be reglued, doing the gluing, and proper taping of torn pages.

Jacqueline and Matthew Shibahara

The GFO has received a donation in honor of Jacqueline and Matthew Shibahara of Estacada, Oregon, celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

Interest Group News

DNA Interest Group

Tuesday, Oct 23rd 1 pm - 3 pm

This is the 3rd class on Mapping Chromosomes; those who were in the first two classes should attend. If others have completed their Family Finder Test at Family Tree DNA or the Ancestry Test at 23andMe and would like to come, we can help you get started.

Remember to bring your previous handouts, a thumb drive with your data, and, if you have one, a laptop. If you don't have a laptop, try to arrive in time to sit at a computer in the front.

Computer Special Interest Group

Saturday, October 20, 9:30 am - 11:30 am

This month Peggy Baldwin will be giving a demonstration/talk about using spreadsheets, Excel in particular, for genealogical research. This should be an interesting topic, since it works outside of conventional genealogical software programs. Please join us.

German Interest Group – Germans in Texas

Saturday, October 6, 1 pm - 3 pm

Join us as Lisa McCullough talks about German migration to the state of Texas. She will share what she has learned while tracing her family roots in the Lone Star State. There will also be time for sharing any successes or questions from the past few weeks.
