Biographical Note

Dorothy Joan Moran was born on 11 December 1933 in Rushford, Fillmore County, Minnesota. Her parents were Henry and Mable (Haugen) Moran. During World War II, Dorothy's family moved to Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, and lived on Willamette Boulevard. She attended Sitton Elementary School and Roosevelt High School. Dorothy married Vern Owen Glad on 11 November 1953.

Dorothy and Vern Glad lived in various places around the Portland area, settling in Linton where they raised their three children. Dorothy worked for Meier & Frank Company for more than ten years before leaving to work for her brother at Harvey's Flowers in Hillsdale. After Harvey retired and sold the flower shop, she worked for Camas Flowers in Camas, Clark County, Washington. In 1985, Dorothy and Vern retired to their beach house in Seaside, Clatsop County, Oregon. Vern died in 1994. Dorothy remained in Seaside until 2005 when she moved back to Portland.

Dorothy enjoyed floristry, crosswords, folk music, puzzles, and history. She took pleasure in traveling and visited Ireland, Rome, and Italy. She had a passion for genealogy and was a member of the Genealogical Forum of Oregon. She traced her family's roots back to Ireland and recertified the Moran family crest; this was one of her greatest accomplishments.

Dorothy died on 4 October 2013. One of her last wishes was that all her genealogy work be donated to Genealogical Forum of Oregon.
