Biographical Note

Nellie Elizabeth Cropper was born 16 March 1892 in Greenleaf, Washington County, Kansas. Her parents were William Cropper and Maria Gilden, who had married in 1891. When Nellie and her younger sister Bernice were still children, the family moved to Skagit County, Washington. She married Harry Irvin Hiday in 1914 and together they had three children. In 1929 the family moved to Salem, Oregon.

Nellie Hiday joined the Genealogical Forum of Oregon in 1961 and became a life member in 1971. She spent many years compiling information from census records, cemeteries and newspapers into books. Many of these books are on the shelf at the GFO. She is also the author of several family histories, including The Minier Family and Hatch Family Histories. She also collected letters from pioneer families.

In addition to the GFO, Mrs. Hiday was a member of several other organizations including the Order of the Eastern Star and Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War. She was also a skilled seamstress.

Nellie Cropper Hiday died 5 July 1979 and is buried in Salem, Oregon.

Scope and Content Note

The Hiday Collection contains research notes, correspondence, copies of documents and biographical sketches gathered from a variety of sources. The most common surnames include Ball, Claypoole, Culver, Ellison, Salyer and Skewis. It is likely that many of these surnames were not related Mrs. Hiday or her husband as documented trees do not include many of the names. They could be families who married into her line or they could be from research that she did for others. Her correspondence indicates that she did research in response to enquiries to the Genealogical Forum of Oregon as well as independent research on early pioneers.

Though the collection was contained in several boxes, the file folders were mostly arranged alphabetically, sometimes by surname and sometimes by the name of the correspondent. It is common to find family group sheets that relate directly to the names included in the letters or documents.
