Cards were filmed in the order they were found in the drawer. Occasionally a card is out of alphabetical order. Also, some of the cards have letters that are unclear, that may not be found using Find. It is recommended that users browse in addition to searching using Find.

Searching the images

Word search by holding down the Ctrl or Command key and touching the letter F.

A search box will open for the search term. Type in the search term and click Enter.

Due to the nature of Optical Character Recognition (OCR) and the quality of some printed items, some instances of the search term may not be found. It is always good practice to look for multiple spellings and to use other search terms.

ORE 7 D 58, 38:4. Roy Brabham, 3925 Senic Drive, north of Eugene and son Leonard, building covered wagon on his fathers farm for 'On to Oregon Cavalcade' to publicize Oregon's Centennial celebration.

Post 7, 1916 annual Memorial Roll died 11 Sept 1915.

buried IOOF Cem., Eugene

Join Post 7, Sept 20, 1889

Roy Brabham, 65, wagon builder for the Oregon Centennial Wagon Train during the state's centennial five years ago, died at his home in Terrebonne, Ore., Monday.

Brabham, formerly of Eugene, constructed 6 of the 7 authentic covered wagons used by the On-To-Oregon Cavalcade as a part of the 1959 centennial observance. The wagons made the long jaunt from Independence, Mo., to Independence, Ore. He was born in Springfield, Ore.

Drawing upon years of experience in building and using wagons, Brabham filled an important spot in that colorful portion of the state's 100th birthday observance. He was chosen as 1 of the 30 Oregon residents who made up the trail crew that actually made the long trek during the summer of 1959. During the four-month journey westward, following the Old Oregon Trail route, Brabham took care of maintenance and repairs of the wagons. The venture was lauded as one of the centennial's most successful publicity stunts.

For a number of years Brabham lived at 2925 Scenic Drive in Eugene, where he operated an orchard. He sold the property in 1960 and moved to Terrebonne, where he lived with a daughter. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

He is survived by 12 children: Harold and Leonard of Creswell; Kenneth, Junction City; Mrs. Maxine Peterson, Madras; Justin, Eugene; Mrs. Justine Greenough, Oak Ridge; Vernon, Prineville; Donald, Merritt, B.C.; Mrs. Pauline Lute, Terrebonne; Mrs. Christine Admire and Mrs. Darlene Wollam, Culver, Ore., and Mrs. Marline Cutsforth, Missoula, Mont.; two sisters, Mrs.

Augusta Morefield, Eugene,
and Mrs. Mabel Frost, Monttague, Calif., 28 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the English Funeral Home in Eugene with interment following in West Lawn Cemetery there.

BROWN, James M. OREG: 1/11/95

James M. Brown had applied for an increase in pension (rec'd $8.00 mo.) and it was granted. The back pay amounted to a considerable sum and it was supposed that he was murdered for this money. Brown settled on his ranch in 1878, coming here from New York, where it is understood he has relatives. He was a bachelor. Body was found about 1/4 mile from house, covered with burlap and several fence rails piled on it.

(note: his pension was increased from $8.00 per month to $40.00 quarterly.)
