Topics

Pension Research: You Stopped Too Soon

Military pension records are a rich source of family information. This lecture covers three main types of records and where to find them: pension applications, pension office ledgers and cards, and final or last payments.

Treasury Records: Follow the Money

Treasury records document the expenditure of funds by the federal government and its agents. They cover a diverse spectrum of activities on the part of the government and are virtually untapped by genealogists.

Basic Military Research

An overview of how to research a soldier will be presented, from enlistment to discharge, from medical care to burial. Included are service records, unit records, claims, and pensions.

Finding Aids in the National Archives

General organization of archival materials will be described, and finding aids will be discussed, both those published and those available on site at the National Archives. The presentation will include how to develop a research strategy for locating the records.

Data Extraction Projects

The data extraction group will be starting a new project for the State of Oregon Vital Records Division. We will be extracting divorces from 1925 through 1945 for all of Oregon. If you would like to assist with the project, please contact me.

We meet at the state office in Lloyd Center on Friday mornings from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm. A laptop with Excel (any version) is a requirement for the project.

This will be the fifth project we have done for the Vital Records division. Earlier projects include 1925-1945 marriages, 1900-1903 deaths, 1900-1903 births, and 1864-1903 Portland births. We have a lot of fun and learn quite a bit doing these projects. We would love to have more members helping.

Thank you.

— Loretta Welsh, Data Extraction Chair

We occasionally find members who would like to work on projects that can be done from their computers at home, but first we need to prepare copies for them to work with. Currently Loretta has newspaper and scrapbook clippings that need to be scanned on the printer/scanner in the print shop, and she would be happy to train someone to help her.

If this sounds like something you would be interested in learning, contact her directly to set up a time schedule: oregoni1853@yahoo.com.

Thanks!

September Startup

As summer winds down, classes and interest groups pick up the pace in September.

There will be lots of free classes offered again. New classes will be offered in response to requests, and others will be repeated to give you a chance to attend if you missed them before.

See page 6 for more details, and check the calendar on the website at gfo.org for detailed and up-to-date information listed for each event.

Urgent! – Donations Processor Needed

The Library Director, Sandi Whiteman, is in need of someone to process the donations that come in to our library on a regular basis. You would need to be able to work on Wednesdays or Thursdays (at least for a while) for training. This would require some computer experience.

If interested, please contact her at the GFO library or leave a message with the Research Assistant on duty – (503) 963-1932.

Thanks!

President's Message

Summer has been a little slow at the library, but has given us some excellent opportunities for outreach. Several of our members provided classes for the American Historical Society of Germans from Russia 43rd Annual International Convention at Concordia College. I gave a class organized by the Oregon Historical Society, and Connie Lenzen will be giving one for them in October. Lenore LeMans provided an information table at the Highland Games where Pat and Art Henderson conducted introductory genealogy classes and Emily Aulicino instructed on DNA. Lyleth Winther (with the help of others) made sure we were well represented at the Genealogical Council of Oregon's Summer Genealogy Fest.

Do you know of other events the GFO should consider attending? Please let me know if you do. Continued outreach is essential to the growth of our organization. The Genealogical Forum of Oregon should not be Portland's "best kept secret."

Lenore LeMans, our new Membership Director, was forced to resign due to some unexpected personal issues, leaving a vacancy in that position. Lenore, thank you for all you did during your brief tenure. We hope we can lure you back soon. There is already a smoothly functioning team that handles all the paperwork, but they need a leader. Can you help?

Cathy Lauer, who recently left the board when her Director-at-Large term expired, has graciously agreed to serve as our Volunteer Director. Thank you Cathy!

We are still faced with vacancies on the Endowment Committee, and we would really love to see some of you come forward to help with fundraising and marketing.

Several suggestions have been received about forming a social media committee. Is social media your thing? Or would you like to learn about it so you can make use of it yourself? Perhaps this is the right niche for you.

I hope you all have a wonderful August, and that more of you are able to come forward to volunteer your time and talents for the betterment of this great organization. We need YOU!

– Laurel Smith

10 am - 2 pm
GFO Library

Limited to 50 attendees

No lunch provided
Brown bags welcome. Cafés nearby.

Coffee, tea, and snacks included.

The library will be open for research after the seminar.

Topics

- Introduction to the National Archives, its records, regions, affiliates, and organization system.
- Using the online resources of the National Archives to find people, events, photographs, and more.

The presentations will include information about the importance of historical context when doing genealogical research.

The Seattle facility of the National Archives has extensive microfilm holdings of value for genealogy research, including Federal population censuses, military service records, pension and bounty land warrant applications, and selected passenger arrival lists. It also has more than 30,000 cubic feet of archival holdings, among them textual documents, photographs, maps, and architectural drawings, dating from the 1850s to the 1980s. Subjects of local interest include Chinese exclusion, Native Americans, the home-front during World War II, and smuggling.

June Financial Report

The comparison of the budget and actual income and expenses for 2011-2012 are detailed above. The large surplus for the fiscal year resulted from the generous annual appeal donations that will be held in reserve until the Board can decide the best use of these funds for our organization.

We ended the year with $38,007.27 in our Wells Fargo checking account. The activity for June 2012 included $10,056.11 in deposits and $2,673.45 in expenses. Deposits include the annual Endowment Fund transfer of $5,700.00 which will be redeposited into our holdings at Vanguard Investments in July 2012. The Half-day Land Records seminar netted $685.82.

Thumbs up to all of our Research Assistants!

From September 2011 (when we moved to our new location) through June 2012, we have accumulated 5047+ hours of volunteer time, and I know some of you forgot to fill in all of your time.

Great job! Thanks for volunteering.

Volunteer Coordinator

Annual Appeal Report 2011 - 2012

Thank you to the following Annual Appeal donors who made donations during April and May of 2012. The total donated during this year's appeal is an impressive $16,110.00!

The Board used part of the funds to purchase advertising on the Who Do You Think You Are? television series. Additional funds were used to obtain 20 licenses of Microsoft Office and one license of QuickBooks 2012 at a discount through TechSoup. The value of the Microsoft software is $11,926.00.

We upgraded the research assistant computer, added two laptops for patron use, and improved our internet speed and connection. We couldn't have done it without you!

Century of Action, 100 Years of Women's Voting in Oregon

– Janice Dilg

Saturday, September 8, 2 pm – Monthly Program

After 42 years and 5 unsuccessful votes, women in Oregon gained the right to vote November 5, 1912. Learn the history of this achievement and hear about some of the suffragists who were part of this important movement in Oregon's history.

Janice Dilg is an independent historian from Portland, Oregon. She holds an MA in history from Portland State University and has been the Project Director since 2008 for Century of Action: Oregon Women Vote, 1912–2012. See the GFO calendar website for her extended bio.

Introduction to Genealogy

– Keith Pyeatt

Saturday, September 22, 10 am – 12 pm

Are you unsure where to begin the process, or do you just want to get started again? Do you need some guidance about what to do next? We can help you jumpstart your genealogy! An optional follow-up tour of the GFO Library is offered to attendees.

This class is free. For information, call the GFO at 503-963-1932 or email gfoinfo@hotmail.com.

Brown-Bag Webinars

Bring a lunch and join us to view a webinar. You could watch it at home, but it's more fun with a group.

Wednesday, August 29, 11 am - Building a Family from Circumstantial Evidence, by Judy G. Russell

Wednesday, September 12, 11 am - What is a 'Reasonably Exhaustive Search'? by Michael Hait

Wednesday, September 26, 11 am - Digital Research Guidance, Research Logs, and To Do Lists: FamilySearch, Research Wiki, and Legacy FamilyTree, by Geoff Rasmussen

Genealogy for Beginners

– Laurel Smith

Thursday, September 6, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, September 6, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Have you always had an interest in genealogy but don't know how to get started? Attend this class to learn the basics. Find out how to correctly fill out a pedigree chart and a family group sheet. Develop a plan to stay organized and explore some of the resources available to you, then plan to attend Introduction to Genealogy on Sat, September 22, 10 am – 12 pm (see above).

Ancestry.com for Beginners

– Laurel Smith

Thursday, September 13, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, September 13, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

The GFO Library provides access to Ancestry.com, both the United States and World Editions. Learn the basics of searching on Ancestry.com. Bring your pedigree chart(s) and family group sheet(s) to learn what to look for and how to frame a successful search.

Using Picasa

– Nanci Remington

Wednesday, September 19, 10 am

Picasa is a free photo organizing and editing program. This class is a follow-up to the introduction class last spring. We will review the basics as well as changes with Windows 7. We will look at other features in a little more depth, including albums and collages. If this is your first experience with Picasa, there will be help available and time to download it and get started.

Family Trees on Ancestry.com

– Laurel Smith

Thursday, September 20, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, September 20, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Do you have a family tree on Ancestry? Do you want to have one? Do you look at other peoples' trees in doing your own research? Explore one of Ancestry.com's most valuable, addictive, and dangerous resources. Bring your research and learn how to make these online trees work for you, how to use them judiciously, and ways to help keep your families' information accurate. If you have a laptop computer and an Ancestry account, you may find it helpful to bring your computer to this session. Since Family Trees cannot be accessed through the Library Edition, this will be a demonstration of the trees via the presenter's personal account.

Family Tree Maker 101

– Laurel Smith

Thursday, September 27, 9 am – 10 am

Thursday, September 27, 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Did you just get Family Tree Maker software? Are you thinking of getting it? Having trouble with the version you have? Come to this class and Laurel Smith will help you get started, answer your questions, and try to help you over any initial hurdles. We will explore importing a tree or starting a new tree, basic features, and navigation. If you have FTM on your laptop, please bring it along. If your program is on your home computer, please bring your specific questions and concerns for discussion and help.

Interest Group News

Irish Interest Group

Saturday, September 15, 1 - 3 pm.

The topic for the September 15th Irish Interest group meeting will be Irish Research & Our Brick Walls.

German Interest Group

The German Interest Group will start up again on Saturday, September 1st, at 1:00 pm. We will be watching and discussing a webinar, Researching Your German Ancestors, by Kory Myerink.

British Interest Group

During the summer, several members of the group toured historic Fort Vancouver, followed by lunch nearby in Officers Row. A later excursion was to the restored McLoughlin House in Oregon City which honors Dr. John McLoughlin (Father of Oregon) and his family, followed by lunch at a Scottish pub nearby. On another day our tea drinkers gathered at Lady Di's Tearoom and gift shop in Lake Oswego, where the tea room and gift shop are steeped in British decor—teapots, gift cards, serving trays, and tea pot cozies, most of it for sale. Of course the food choices are great, including “Lady Di’s Special” (similar to “High Tea” at other locations). On the walls are framed photos of the queen and Princess Di, the British flag, and commemorative plates.

The September 22nd meeting will have Duane Funk speaking on shipping lines and the ports that our British ancestors must have departed from. Duane will also reflect on what the first two weeks of sailing the choppy North Atlantic sea might have been like for our landlubber ancestors. He speaks from experience from his retired Navy background.

No meeting is held in November, but January will have Chuck Falconer sharing a slide presentation of his photos of historic England. In March, we’ll have a guest speaker doing a presentation on the Scottish Borders.

If you have Ancestors from England, Wales, or Scotland, or some Scots-Irish, please join us.

Interest Group News (continued)

Virginia Interest Group

Join the Virginia Interest Group the first Saturday of each month (September - June) at 10 am - 12 noon.

Research in Virginia can be difficult with the complication of “burned counties,” as well as the ordinary difficulties of using historical documents, but it is not impossible. The Virginia Group will discuss the history of Virginia and explore various methods to do sound genealogy research. We hope to foster collaboration among our many Virginia researchers and work on our varied research problems, our “brick walls,” together.

September 1: Lord Dunmore's War. Come and learn about Virginia's relationship with Great Britain in the years leading up to the American Revolution. Find out why Dunmore County changed its name and why the last colonial governor was chased out of Virginia to live on a ship. Discover how “Dunmore's little war” influenced the Southern campaign during the Revolution, impacting Kings Mountain and other major battles.

October 6: The Settlement of Virginia and sharing our summer research finds.

Future topics:

- Revolutionary War: Southern Campaign
- Researching Your Virginia Revolutionary War ancestor
- Indentured Servants

This year Carol and Judi will be working with group members individually to help with brick walls and research plans. We will be posting a schedule and sign up page on our blog, “Virginia Roots and Vines.” <http://gfoviriagarootsandvines.blogspot.com>.
