Summary

Title: Jesuale Collection

Accession Number: 2014-12

Creator: Margaret Jane (Erbaugh) Jesuale (1923-2016)

Extent: 17 boxes containing 134 folders (9616 pages)

Language: English, some German

Abstract: The Jesuale Collection was loaned to the Genealogical Forum of Oregon so that it could be preserved and shared. The bulk of the collection is correspondence between members of the family, some dating back over 100 years. The collection focuses on the maternal ancestors of Jane Jesuale who lived in Michigan. The primary surnames are Erbaugh and MacArthur (McArthur). Of particular interest is the set of narratives written by Jane that document her life. Also, the video interviews with her father, Cecil Erbaugh. There are also narratives about other members of her family that include copies of vital records and family memorabilia.

There are genealogical references as well. The Erbaugh (Erbach) family is traced back to the early 1700s in Germany.

Administrative Information

Provenance: The papers of the Jesuale Collection were loaned to the Genealogical Forum of Oregon from 2014 to 2016 when the papers were scanned. The finding aid was completed in 2022.

Retention and Access: Scanned images of the collection are currently retained by the GFO Manuscripts Committee in three separate digital storage locations and can be accessed at the GFO library or by contacting manuscripts@gfo.org.

Copyright Status: The status of copyright of the unpublished writings and research papers of the Jesuale family is governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.).

Biographical Note

Margaret Jane Erbaugh was born on 1 July 1923 in Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan. Her parents were Cecil H. Erbaugh and Margaret MacArthur. Jane graduated from the Providence School of Nursing in 1946 and was part of the Nurse Cadet Corps during World War II. She married Donald L. Jesuale on 13 September 1947 in Detroit. Donald died on 8 June 2001. Jane spent most of her life in Michigan, moving to Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, in her later years. She died there on 29 April 2016.
